

Fairytales Mad Libs

Directions:

1. Fill in the word bank below with audience suggestions (Choose the funniest).
2. Fill in the answers on the story sheets.
3. Read the story out loud with the funny answers (Don't tell what the story is before.)

Fairytales Madlib Word Bank

Fairytales "Mad Libs" Story

Little _____ Riding Hood was walking through _____ one her way (color) (location)

to visit her sick _____ who was home in bed with _____.
(relative) (disease)

Little _____ Riding Hood had a basket filled with _____.
(same color) (food)

and _____ and _____ that she had made herself.
(different food) (beverage)

Her mother told her not to leave the path or talk to _____.
(something scary)

But Little _____ Riding Hood didn't listen to her mother. She met the (same color)

Big, Bad, _____ and told him exactly where she was going.
(small furry animal)

The Big, Bad _____ raced ahead to _____'s (same small furry animal) (same relative) house and tossed _____ in the closet. Then he got into a _____ (same relative) (type of clothing)

and slipped into bed.

When Little _____ Riding Hood arrived she said, " _____ what big (same color) (same relative)

_____ you have. The better to _____ you with my dear.
(body part) (one of the 5 senses)

_____ what big _____ you have. The better to (same relative) (another body part)

_____ you with my dear and _____ what big (another sense) (same relative)

_____ you have the better to _____ my dear.
(third body part) (a different sense)

And then _____ jumped out of bed and chased Little _____ (relative) (same color)

Riding Hood all around the cottage until _____ showed up and said (famous powerful person)

_____. The big, bad _____ screamed and ran away (something that person might say) (same furry animal)

and they all lived Happily Ever After.